Our Philosophy

OUR GOAL IS SIMPLE: to provide an outstanding instrument that becomes an organic part of the room. For the past 50 years, artistry has been a fundamental part of the Berghaus philosophy. Designing our organs as aural and visual masterpieces, we carefully create the tonal and visual design to work in perfect harmony with the surrounding architecture. Our tonal and visual designers collaborate to build the instrument that best matches our customers' musical needs and space requirements while remaining financially responsible.

History & Heritage

IN 1967, LEONARD G. BERGHAUS, then a gifted educator and organist, was inspired to build pipe organs as a profession. His early passion for the pipe organ prompted extensive training in the art of organ building with a special emphasis on tonal design, voicing and the various forms of key and stop actions.

Over the years, Berghaus has grown to become a leader in the design and construction of fine liturgical and performance-oriented pipe organs. The company is also highly regarded for its restoration of historical instruments. The commitment and passion that inspired the creation of the firm remain evident in all aspects of our work under the guidance of Brian Berghaus, the second generation of Berghaus family leadership.
